It has provided an interdisciplinary platform for researchers in the field of law and economics since its first research workshop in Bonn in 2007. CLEEN organises an annual conference for PhD students and postdoctoral researchers from economics and law to present their work on competition law, economics, and policy and receive feedback from senior faculty members. There will also be a few presentations by CLEEN faculty members.

According to current planning, the 2023 CLEEN Conference will be held in person in Mannheim.
